Cuban Crisis

Editor—Re your response on the "Alpha 66" raids (Editorial, "Lame Answer on Alpha 66 Raid," September 14). It is obvious that our intelligence and military forces are aware of this group's sorties to the Cuban coast . . .

It is equally clear that the "Alpha 66" must be supported by someone—and very possibly the CIA, which has also brought us dangerously close to war.

All the evidence points to the fact that we are breaking our own neutrality laws and in effect intervening when we have committed ourselves not to.
